

ResourceEye Services Inc.

Geological Services Summary of Experience

Clients and Projects:

Minas de Vallarta, SA de CV

May 2007 to present

ResourceEye Services Inc. is providing geological consulting services, including the preparation of a NI 43-101 report on their La Suerte Project, located in the state of Nayarit, Mexico.

Uracan Resources Ltd.

March 2007 to present

ResourceEye Services Inc. is providing exploration services and geological data compilation in support of the company's air access only program on the Pipewrench Lake uranium property in northern Saskatchewan.

Paget Resources Corporation

March 2007 to present

ResourceEye Services Inc. is providing geological data compilation and exploration services in support of the company's program on the Fernie Phosphate project in southeastern British Columbia.

Northgate Minerals Corporation

December 2006

ResourceEye Services Inc. provided GIS mapping services in support of the company's exploration on the Kemess North Project in British Columbia.

Torch River Resources Ltd.

May 2006 - November 2006

ResourceEye Services Inc. provided geological consulting and exploration services to the client's Red Bird Molybdenum property located southwest of Burns Lake in the west central part of British Columbia. ResourceEye implemented, managed, and staffed the air access only exploration camp for an 8 hole drilling program and geophysical surveying. Additionally R. Parent, P. Geo. acts as QP for the project.

ResourceEye Services Inc.

Geological Services Summary of Experience

Compliance Energy Corp.

March 2005 - Present

ResourceEye Services Inc. provided geological support for the company's 2006 exploration at the Raven Project on Vancouver Island. Previously, we were engaged to provide geological modeling, resource evaluation, reserve estimation and mine design services to the company's Basin Coal Mine located near Princeton, BC. ResourceEye also implemented the company's 2005 exploration program at the Bear Property on Vancouver Island.

Quinsam Capital Corp.

June 2006 - October 2006

ResourceEye Services Inc. provided geological consulting and exploration services, in addition to acting on the company's board of directors for a short period. Quinsam was a newly formed organization and ResourceEye advised the company during the completion of a qualifying transaction in order to obtain their listing on the TSX venture exchange.

Evolving Gold Corp.

July 2005 - October 2006

ResourceEye Services Inc. performed data compilation and geological modeling for several of the company's projects located in Alaska, Newfoundland, South Dakota and Nevada.

Continuum Resources Ltd.

Nov 2005 - July 2006

May - Aug 2003

ResourceEye Services Inc. provided ongoing data management support to the company's many projects. Prior to this, ResourceEye provided a customized database, performed data compilation, and preliminary geological modeling for the company's McVicar Lake property located in northern Ontario.

West Hawk Development Corp.

Nov 2005 - June 2006

ResourceEye Services Inc. had been contracted to provide data compilation services and exploration program management and development on the company's various coal holdings, incl. Coal Creek & Groundhog, in northern British Columbia.

ResourceEye Services Inc.

Geological Services Summary of Experience

Hillsborough Resources Ltd.

July 2005 – June 2006

ResourceEye Services Inc. provided exploration personnel on Hillsborough's Five Cabin project in Northeastern BC. We are currently performing a data compilation on some of the company's coal land holdings in the same area, with the intent of planning for future exploration programs.

Entrée Gold Inc.

July 2004 – April 2006

ResourceEye Services Inc. provided database development services to assist the company maintain ongoing exploration information being gathered on their Shivee Tolgoi project in Mongolia.

Falls Mountain Coal Inc. – (wholly owned subsidiary of Pine Valley Mining Ltd.)

Feb 2005 – March 2006

ResourceEye Services Inc. provided data compilation services, followed by the design, permitting, implementation and management of the Pine Pass exploration program. This included drilling more than 80 coal exploration holes from April to November 2005. ResourceEye compiled the drilling information and the NI 43-101 compliant resource estimate.

Elk Valley Coal Corp.

July 2005 – March 2006

ResourceEye Services Inc. managed and implemented the company's 20,000 metre plus exploration program on the former Quintette minesite, located near Tumbler Ridge, BC. This included ongoing data management, geological and geophysical interpretation.

Pacific Northwest Capital Corp.

Dec 2004 – Sept 2005

ResourceEye Services Inc. provided data compilation services and exploration data analysis, including geochemistry and geophysics for the company's Longwood Project, a PGE target located in New Zealand.

ResourceEye Services Inc.

Geological Services Summary of Experience

New Gold Inc.

July 2005

ResourceEye Services Inc. provided preliminary computer modeling consultation for the company's Afton Mining operations near Kamloops.

Grande Cache Coal Corp.

Sept 2004 - July 2005

ResourceEye Services Inc. provided field support to the company's No. 8 Mine geological drilling activities, which resulted in the company doubling the resources in this area. ResourceEye supervised the drilling of over two hundred holes, coordinating the activities of drilling, equipment and geophysical logging contractors.

Southern Rio Resources Ltd.

May 2003 - April 2004

ResourceEye Services Inc. provided support in data compilation and interpretation, as well as providing trenching and mapping services for exploration of the 3T's epithermal gold project in central BC.

True North Gems Inc.

Sept 2003- Nov 2003

ResourceEye Services Inc. provided 3D geological modeling and data presentation for the company's Regal Ridge Deposit located in the Yukon Territory.

Boliden Westmin - Myra Falls
Operation, Campbell River, BC

Oct 2003 - Nov 2003

ResourceEye Services Inc. provided geological and ARD geochemical modeling for the clean fill project at surface facilities at the Myra Falls Operation near Campbell River, BC. ResourceEye also provided Minesight training and consulting to internal geological and engineering staff.

Pacific Ridge Explorations Ltd.

July 2003 - Sept 2003

ResourceEye Services Inc. provided data compilation and geological modeling services for the company's Gold Coin Project in Humboldt County, Nevada.

ResourceEye Services Inc.

Geological Services Summary of Experience

Amarc Resources Ltd.

Amarc Resources Inc. –
(a Hunter–Dickinson Group Company)

Aug 2003 – Sept 2003

ResourceEye Services Inc. was retained to help the newly formed junior company evaluate prospective properties for acquisition in British Columbia.

Western Canadian Coal Corp.

July 2001 – Sept 2003

ResourceEye Services Inc. performed geological data compilation, geological modeling, resource/reserve estimation and exploration supervision on several WCC's coal properties in northeastern BC, several of which are under development. ResourceEye provided a key team member to WCC to assist in regulatory permitting for the Wolverine and Dillon Mines.